______

Am D Am D Am D

 ${\tt Em}$   ${\tt A}$   ${\tt Em}$  I thought of you when they closed down the school

 $\begin{array}{ccc} & A & \text{Em} \\ \text{And the hospital too} \end{array}$

D Did they think that you were better?

Em They were wrong

A Em You had so many friends

D 'Cause they couldn't take the patter

 $$\operatorname{Am}$$   $$\operatorname{D}$$   $\operatorname{Am}$$  And I'll see you baby when the clans rise again

D Am C Women and men united by a struggle

Am Going down

D Am With your sister and your daughter

F In this free world

 $$\tt Em$$   $$\tt A$$   ${\tt Em}$  If I wore your shades could I share your point of view?

Could I make you feel better? Paint a picture, write a letter? Well I know what you're saying But I see the things you do Α And it's much too dangerous To get closer to you D Am Αm But I will see you baby when the clans rise again Am С Women and men united in a struggle Αm Going down D With a pocketful of plastic D Like a dollar on elastic In this free world I wouldn't tell you if I didn't care Am I'll see you baby when the clans rise again С D Am Women and men united by the struggle D Am And the ghettoes are full of Mercedes Benz And you'd never hurt a friend F Who wouldn't tell you Em A Εm

It's cold and it's going to get colder

You may not get much older  $\ensuremath{\mathsf{D}}$

You're much too scared of living

And to die is a reliable exit

Em

So you push it and you test it  $\ensuremath{\mathsf{D}}$

With Thunderbird and Rivin

 $$\operatorname{Am}$$  D  $\operatorname{Am}$$  I'll see you baby when the clans rise again

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{D}}$   $\ensuremath{\mathsf{Am}}$   $\ensuremath{\mathsf{C}}$  Women and men united by the struggle

 $$\operatorname{Am}$$  In this free world baby

D Am Got to get it up and shag it

F In this free world

Am Going down

D Am Like a lamb goes to the slaughter

 $$\rm C$$  In this free world baby  $$\rm Am$$  Going down

D Am With a pocketful of plastic

F G F In this free world

Am I wouldn't tell you if I didn't care
