D G A Bm Em

D G
I'm staying home this evening,

D Bm
And playing my guitar

G
And all the time I'm strumming

A
I'm wondering where you are

D G
Oh yes I know it's over

D Bm
I know I shouldn't care

G
But I can't get away from you

A
It seems you're always there.

G D
How come I don't see you anymore?

G D
How come we lost the magic touch?

Bm G
Why can't I pick up the telephone

A
When I want to call you so much?

G D
Who's going to make me forget you

G D
And get you off my mind?

Bm G
I could be out breaking other people's hearts

if you weren't still breaking mine.

D G
The winter's drawing in again

D Bm
another year has passed

G
Now I think of things I meant to say

A
But the time went by so fast

D G
I hear you're living in New York these days

D Bm
And you don't come here anymore

G
I keep asking myself so many questions

A
But lately I wonder what I'm wondering for

G D
Who's going to make me forget you

G D
And get you off my mind?

Bm G
I could be out breaking other people's hearts

A
If you weren't still breaking mine

Bm Em
I let you pass me by

G A
I never tried too hard

Bm Em
Though you'll never see me cry

D A
You really made your mark

(solo) G D G D Bm G A
